Note from Flying Phoenix:

Here is our current price list. We are still waiting on our Wizard container, as it has been held up in California for over 3 months. We do expect it to make it here soon though. Then we should have plenty of assorted shells for Do It.

We did not get our containers from Lidu and TSky, but they are finally done with production and ready to ship. I don't know if they will be here in time, especially with all the chaos in our ports and the rail.

Orders for Do It 2021 are due Wednesday 9/15.
